

Céline El Debs joins Muzinich & Co., bolstering Swiss team

Zurich, 25 January 2019 - Muzinich & Co. announces the appointment of Céline El Debs, as of December 2018. Céline is responsible for business development in the Swiss Romandie and is based in Geneva.

Céline has been working in the asset management industry in Switzerland for more than 25 years. She has held senior positions in sales and marketing of third-party investment funds and alternative investment products at HSBC Private Bank and UBS Global Asset Management in Geneva. Before that, she managed the third-party investments funds selection at Ferrier Lullin & Cie in Geneva. Céline holds a Master of Business Administration, Finance & Investments from The George Washington University of Washington.

“We are delighted that Céline has joined our Swiss team. Céline’s experience in the financial sector adds valuable knowledge of the financial market in French-speaking Switzerland to our growing team. She will help us to expand our presence in the Swiss Romandie and to further bolster Muzinich’s strong position in Switzerland,” said Martin Gut, Country Head, Switzerland.
